Samoset Book Fair

Thanks to the generous support of the people in Harvest, Samoset Elementary School will have its 4th Annual Scholastic Book Fair from May 31 - June 3. Students will get to shop for their very own books – at no charge to them. You're invited to join us for a volunteer servant shift at the school that week.

Giving Thanks for sixtyeight

"I am the bread of life," Jesus says in John 6:48, the scripture that gives Harvest's sixtyeight worship experience its name. For over five years, sixtyeight has provided fresh bread for hungry souls in an alternative worship setting. While celebrating how God has worked in people's lives through sixtyeight, Harvest's Worship Design Team has discerned that the time has come to end sixtyeight as a worship experience. We look forward to the possibilities that lie ahead of us as we explore new seasons and opportunities God is inviting us into as a worshipping community. As we say goodbye to this service, we invite you to join us in celebrating sixtyeight's fruitfulness and in praying for what God has in store for the future. The last sixtyeight service will be Thursday, May 26. Join us that night to celebrate this ministry!

OUTPOURING

OUTPOURING

The outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon followers of Jesus is not confined to the ancient first day of Pentecost or that first generation of those who believed. Every day can bring a fresh experience of the transforming power of the Spirit of God in our lives. Dwight L. Moody, reminds us, "You might as well try to see without eyes, hear without ears, or breathe without lungs, as to try to live the Christian life without the Holy Spirit."

Next Week: Your Unique Impact
